Although I don't necessarily agree with them, sometimes I have prejudiced feelings (like gut reactions or spontaneous thoughts) toward drug users that I don't feel I can prevent.
I understand the experience of being stigmatized as a drug user.
Sometimes I am uncomfortable around people who are very different from me.
It is not appropriate for me to talk about my drug and alcohol use with clients.
I trust drug users just as much as I trust non-drug users.
If a woman is pregnant, she has a responsibility to stop taking drugs.
Drug users have a difficult time practicing safe sex consistently.
Drug users have meaningful participation in developing policies and programs at my organization.
I know how to avoid language that stigmatizes drug users.
Although it is hard to admit, I sometimes judge people who cannot stop using drugs.
