

Tip of the Week #1

The customer experience begins with the member's first encounter with the practice. Provide good customer service that reflects your practice and always capture current demographics with each visit:

- Current Address
- Phone number
- Insurance Plan

Take this opportunity to update the patient's account with current information to maintain an efficient billing process.

